Philosophy and Approach: I believe that everyone deserves the opportunity to live a fulfilling life. I hope to help those with addiction and mental health issues lead a life that brings them happiness and a sense of inner peace. I pride myself on being non-judgmental and empathetic. I strive to create a safe environment that allows my clients to explore their obstacles and work toward their goals. I employ an eclectic approach with a reliance on motivational interviewing, stages of change concepts and cognitive-behavioral aspects with a strong emphasis on the therapeutic alliance.

Formal Education and Training: I have a PhD in Counseling Education from Oregon State University with a focus on clinical supervision, graduate level teaching, and clinical counseling psychology. I hold a Master's Degree in Counseling Psychology from Lewis and Clark College with a focus on Addiction Counseling, and a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology from The University of Portland. I am a Licensed Professional Counselor as well as a Certified Drug and Alcohol Counselor level III in the state of Oregon. I charge $150.00 per 50 minute individual counseling session.

As a Licensee of the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists, I abide by its Code of Ethics. To maintain my license I am required to participate in continuing education, taking classes dealing with subjects relevant to this profession.

As a Licensed Professional Counselor through of the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists, I will abide by its Code of Ethics.

As a client of a Licensed Professional Counselor you have the following rights:
